“Apply Now!! Cottonwood Youth Advisory Commission”

The City of Cottonwood is currently accepting applications for the Cottonwood Youth Advisory Commission. The deadline is August 22, 2014. If you are between the ages of 14-18 and want to make a difference in your community here is your opportunity. Commission Appointees will be selected by the City Council, and elected to a term of one year. The objective of the commission is to deal with issues that directly affect teens in the community. The commission will report directly to the city council. Service with this group will look great on a college application. The commission is considered service and action oriented and will spend time during the year getting involved with service projects and community agencies. So if you are interested in making a difference for your peers and in the community, please contact The Cottonwood Parks and Recreation Department for an application at 639-3200.
